

"Soaring to New Heights"

Washington Dress Code Policy

Students and staff dress shall be appropriate at all times. Student dress, personal appearance or conduct shall not disrupt nor distract from instructional procedures, school social functions, or the disciplinary control of the teachers. The decision as to whether or not such a condition exists or regarding the course of action to be taken shall be left to the reasonable discretion of the principal or assistant principal.

Uniform Shirts

- Solid colored collared shirt (any color) or a Washington spirit shirt
- Tucked in

Uniform Pants/Short/Skirts/Jumpers

- Navy, black, or tan (khaki)
- Belts, if worn, must be black, navy, or brown and no more than one size larger than the waist
- Tights/leggings worn under skirts must be solid colored

All shorts and skirts must reach past fingertips

ONLY allowed on Non-Uniform Days

- Jeans, denim
- Skinny pants, stretch pants, jeggings, sweatpants, leggings
- Cargo shorts

All shorts and skirts must reach past fingertips

Headwear

- Hats, caps, and bandannas shall not be worn
- Costume-like accessories shall not be worn

ID's must be worn at all times

Replacement ID's will need to be purchased in the office. The first ID is free.

Shoes

- Must be worn at all times
- No wheels are allowed
- Flip-flops and slip on sandals are not allowed

Not allowed at any time

- Oversized or undersized clothing
- Midriff shirts
- Spaghetti straps
- Any clothing torn, cut at the seam, frayed, or with shredded hems
- Clothing, buttons, or jewelry with slogans advertising illegal substances, obscene, or sexually explicit language or graphics
- Hoop or hanging jewelry that can be tangled or pulled

Students out of dress code will need to change into appropriate clothing at the beginning of the day and change back before going home. They will also serve a lunch detention.