Resources for Families

Please know that the WESD is here to provide you with support during this challenging time. If you need assistance, please reach out to your child's teacher, school social worker, principal, or utilize some of the resources below. New this week is a wealth of information from the National Federation of Families for Children's Mental Health \(NFFCMH\) including videos, tips and activities related to self-care and coping with stress and anxiety, how to talk with kids about COVID-19 and so much more, that families can use.

The Web site, arizonatogether.org, provides many resources for families including mental health, employment, financial assistance, community resources and options for Internet access. The Web site, 211arizona.org also provides resources for families including clothing, housing, health and dental, support groups and family services. Teen LifeLine is a resource for students who may need someone to reach out to. They can be reached at www.teenlifeline.org or 602-248-8336. For parents who need emotional support, the National Parent Helpline is available at 1-855-427-2736. The WESD Social Services Department, including school social workers, are available through email or voicemail. Their contact information can be found on each school's website.

If you have any questions or are in need of resources, please email our Social Services Department at socialservices@wesdschools.org or call 602-347-2636.

Eighth Grade, Kindergarten and Preschool Promotion

The health and safety of our students, their families and our staff is one of our top priorities. With schools closed for the remainder of the year and the Governor's Stay at Home order extended through May 15, we've made the difficult decision to cancel our traditional eighth grade promotion ceremonies at all K-8 and 7/8 schools. We know that transitioning to high school is an exciting time for our eighth graders. To celebrate this milestone, each school will create a special video to honor their eighth grade students. Families will receive a link to the video presentation, which can be shared with family and friends. Promotion certificates will be mailed to students during the week of May 25.

Additionally, schools will not be conducting special promotion ceremonies for kindergarten or preschool students.

Please stay safe and care for the needs of your family. WESD continues to remain committed to offering resources and support during these challenging times.

Sincerely,

Dr. Paul Stanton
Superintendent
